

BRICS 2.0: Pursuing Global Governance and Growth

Friday, November 14, 2014 | 9:30 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Rotunda, Low Memorial Library, Columbia University

At the fourth Columbia University BRICLab Conference, leading academics, policymakers, and market analysts will discuss how Brazil, Russia, India, China, and South Africa are building institutions. Panelists will also examine the challenges and opportunities of emerging markets and their role in global economic expansion.

Panelists include:

Gregory Bedrosian, CEO, Redwood Capital

Otaviano Canuto, Senior Advisor on BRICS Economies, World Bank

Padma Desai, Gladys and Roland Harriman Professor of Comparative Economic Systems, Columbia University

Fernando Faria, Founder, InnovaBRICS

David Fergusson, Co-CEO and President, The M&A Advisor

Khalid Malik, Head of Human Development Report, UNDP

Arturo Porzecanski, Distinguished Economist in Residence, American University

Philip Schellekens, Senior Economist, World Bank

Jan Svejnar, Director, Center on Global Economic Governance, Columbia University

Marcos Troyjo, Co-Director, BRICLab | CGEG, Columbia University

Tony Volpon, Head of Emerging Markets Research, Nomura Equities

Jonathan Wheatley, Deputy Emerging Markets Editor, Financial Times

RSVP »